

ALL FOR HELP
Roosevelt is Asked to Break Silence

Observed by the President in Local Politics.

TIMOTHY L. WOODRUFF
Chairman of the New York
State Republican
Committee

Requests President's Aid in the Fight Against Hearst.

By Associated Press.
New York, Oct. 30.—Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the state republican committee said today that he advised President Roosevelt to issue a campaign document in support of the independence league in support of W. R. Hearst's candidacy for governor. Mr. Woodruff objects to publication in parallel columns of the speeches of the president and Mr. Hearst as to the issue of wealth. Mr. Woodruff earnestly hoped that President Roosevelt who has to a degree long maintained a position that would not interfere in local politics take up this matter and defend the author of the illusion. He expected all along that some effort as this would be made to influence the voters. His attention was called to the publication of yesterday and an investigation. I found it a serious matter and will urge the president the advisability of his rule of silence in local matters.

A publication referred to by Mr. Woodruff quotes President Roosevelt's speech at Oyster Bay, Sept. 5, when he is reported as saying the multi-millionaire is not a bad a good to the community. He is only a man for that wealth and uses it causes of goodness. From a speech by the president at Washington July 6th, last, he is quoted as saying that very wealthy men may times play a useful part in life. They rarely are as useful as lives are expended in different fields. Those of money getting to heap riches on riches. The president is quoted as saying, "It is an evil. Against this Mr. Woodruff is quoted in a parallel column there should be, as far as possible, an equal distribution of wealth, that he believed in organization that helped to distribute wealth.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 30.—Demands for extending of the work day and an increase of the wage scale have been presented to all division superintendents of the Pennsylvania railway, of Pittsburgh, by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. MURDER BY NEGRO AROUSING DAYTON.

By Associated Press.
Dayton, O., Oct. 30.—Geo. B. Ashore, town marshal of Franklin, 16 miles south of this city, was shot and instantly killed this morning while attempting to arrest George White, a negro suspected of being implicated in robberies there during the past two weeks. White was captured after an exciting chase through the town and is now in the town jail. The people are enraged and mob violence is feared.

The negro had held his pursuers at bay until shot in the right arm when he surrendered. A mob composed of about 300 men and boys attacked the Franklin jail bent on lynching the negro. While they were forcing an entrance in the rear, Sheriff Patterson and two deputies took White out the front way, placed him in an automobile and made a speedy run for Lebanon, the county seat. The departing automobile was fired at by armed members of the mob.

News has reached here from Bear Creek in Lincoln county, that 'Bud' Goldbold, a young white farmer, was fired upon by negro white caps while riding through a lonely stretch of woods. His horse was killed but Goldbold escaped.

LIST OF DEAD
In West Jersey and Sea

Will Not Exceed Three Score, According to Railway Officials.

Seven Unfortunates are Thought to be Wedged

Immense Weight of Cars
Makes Raising Them
Difficult.

By Associated Press.
Atlantic City, N. Y., Oct. 30.—With all of the recovered bodies identified and seven persons reported missing, the authorities and railroad officials are today certain that the number killed on Sunday on the drawbridge disaster on the West Jersey and Seashore electric road will not exceed sixty. Fifty-two bodies have been claimed, two of these placed among the missing are known to be dead, and five are still unaccounted for.

These seven victims are believed to be wedged beneath the second passenger coach, which is held fast in the muddy bottom of the Troughfare. Efforts last night to dislodge this car produced little result. The ponderous trucks weighing about 16 tons have sunk deep into the mud. As a last resort it was suggested that the wreckers use dynamite to blow up the car, but this will not be done unless all other plans fail.

Among those reported missing was William H. Stewart, of Winoah, N. J., whose wife and son are included in the list of dead. Stewart was located last night in the City hospital. He tells a remarkable story of his experience. With his wife and adopted son, Stewart occupied seats in the second coach. When the train plunged into the stream he saw his wife and son hurled to the floor of the car. Stewart, who had been sitting near a window, was thrown into the water. When he came to the surface, he floated through an open window back into the coach and his hands came in contact with the hell rope. By means of this rope, Stewart dragged himself to the door of the car and soon on the roof. The coach had been completely engulfed and from his perilous position he was rescued and hurried to the hospital in an unconscious condition.

The inquest will be begun on Thursday, and it may take a week or more before a verdict is reached.

Dead Motorman Blamed.

A railroad official said today that an examination of the trucks of the wrecked cars indicated that the first cars of the train could not have been the car that twisted the rail. The truck of the second car however, it is asserted, displays signs of having caused the trouble. This theory of the railroad officials is not agreed to by witnesses who saw the train go over board. There appears to be an attempt to hold Scott, the dead motorman, responsible for the accident. It is declared the motorman tried to cross the bridge at a speed greater than allowed by the rules of the company.

FEAR IS FELT FOR SAFETY OF BARGE.

By Associated Press.
Alpena, Mich., Oct. 30.—It is feared that the tow barge Thomas H. Cahoon, owned in Saginaw, is lost with a crew of seven men. The Cahoon was in tow of the steamer Homer Warren and anchored off Thunder Bay Island, Saturday night. The Cahoon broke loose during the height of the gale and drifted out into Lake Huron. It is possible that she may have drifted across the lake to the Canadian shore but vesselmen do not think that the barge could live in the gale. The Warren and her other barges, the Exile and Ida Keith, rode out the gale in safety.

HERRING TRIAL OPENS

Convict Paul Stensland Is Taken to Chicago to Testify.

At the opening of court it was thought that the greater part of the day would be consumed in the effort to obtain a jury. It is not expected that Stensland will take the stand for several days.

Soon after the case was called the attorneys for Hering announcing the desire to make a motion to quash the indictments and an opportunity to make arguments on the motion. If they are overruled in this they declare they will make application to the court for a change of venue on the ground that Hering cannot be given a fair trial in this county.

Many People Stayed at Home to Avoid Running
Into Trouble.

By Associated Press.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—The morning of the first anniversary of the proclamation of the imperial manifesto giving a constitution to Russia passed in St. Petersburg without any disorder being reported. The deums were celebrated in the churches and only small crowds of people were to be seen in the flag decorated streets. Many of the residents deciding to stay in doors in fear of becoming involved in troubles. Students in uniform were conspicuously absent as the result of a warning issued at the meeting held in the university that bands of reactionary rowdies had been formed to beat pedestrians in student garb. The garrison of the city was distributed in accordance with the emergency regulations for preserving order. Large forces of infantry and cavalry were concentrated about the city, and large numbers of troops were gathered in the neighborhood of the university, but the military were kept out of sight so far as possible, in the interior of courts and in buildings. Special guards were stationed at all the railway stations.

There was a conflict last night between a detachment of troops and a large crowd which had gathered at a fire in the industrial district of Schlusselburg. Some rowdies cut the fire hose, drove the firemen away and began plundering, whereupon the soldiers fired a volley into the air and dispersed the crowd without any casualties. Otherwise the night passed quietly.

At noon special edition of the Official Gazette containing the imperial ukaz, granting full religious freedom to the 'old believers' was issued, the preamble of which is as follows:
To guarantee to all Russian subjects liberty of faith and public worship according to the dictates of their conscience, we issued a ukaz April 30, 1905. In continuance of this task of love and peace we deem it good to establish rules and regulations governing the international organization of the 'old believers' and other dissident sects of the holy orthodox church, charging the ministry of the interior at the same time to elaborate a similar law for the sects issuing from other christian confessions. With trust in a sufficient providence we believe that these measures will serve to strengthen the ties of loyalty by which the old believers have been bound for centuries to the throne."

The new law introduces an important innovation in the form of civil marriage, designed for the sects having no clergy, but of which non-members can easily take advantage, enabling thousands of persons, who on account of their objection to a religious rite and the absence of a civil ceremony have lived together unmarried, to assume the legal tie and legitimize their children. This is of special importance to the mariavists, the Polish Schismatics from the Roman Catholic church, whose numbers are rapidly growing on the German frontier.

The men escaped on a west bound freight train which was searched at Newton Falls but no one was found.

After they had been held in jail for some time, being able to secure bail, they compromised the case, paying Mrs. Heine $30,000 of the amount she said she had given them. She then refused to press the charge of swindling, the bail demanded was reduced to a nominal figure and the men were freed.

TRACTION LINES.

Columbus, Oct. 30.—The supreme court handed down an important decision today bearing of the traffic arrangements between Urban and Interurban street railway companies by which the latter secure entrance on the former's lines and the mutual obligations of the companies to the traveling public. The supreme court reversed the decision.

Son of Engineer Charles Wheeler Dies in the Windy City.

NEWS A SEVERE SHOCK

To the Parents Who Did Not Know His Condition
Was Serious.

Engineer Charles Wheeler, of the Chicago and Erie yards, received a message last evening announcing the death of his son, Ora J. Wheeler, who passed away in Chicago after a brief illness from appendicitis. The news was a severe shock to Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler and the other members of the family as it had not even been known that the young man was in a serious condition. Information was received a few days ago that he had suffered a slight attack of appendicitis but there was every reason to believe that the youth was on the road to recovery as no other news came from him until the message last evening bore the startling intelligence of his death. Mr. Wheeler and his son, Elmer, of Huntington went to Chicago this morning, leaving here on Erie train No. 7 about 1 o'clock, and will take charge of the remains. Mrs. Wheeler and other son, Charles, Jr., remained here, Mrs. Wheeler being quite ill and unable to travel.

The deceased was 26 years of age and had been employed in Chicago for some time, being a trusted employee in the offices of George Bullen & Co. in the First National Bank building in the windy city.

The remains will be brought back to this city and from here will be taken to northeastern Pennsylvania, the former home of the Wheeler family, for interment.

HENRY IDE RETURNS

To Attend the Wedding of
His Daughter to Bourke
Cochran.

Generally Speaking, All is Peace in the Far Off Possessions.

By Associated Press.

San Francisco, Oct. 30.—Henry Clay Ide, late governor general of the Philippine Islands, arrived here yesterday on the liner Hong Kong Maru, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Marjorie Ide. He has come home after more than five years service in the far East, to attend the marriage of his daughter to Bourke Cochran. The wedding will take place at the Ide home in St. Johnsbury, Vt., shortly after Governor Ide's arrival.

Speaking of conditions in the island, Governor Ide said:
"The Philippines are today in better shape than they ever were under Spanish or American government. The place is no longer a problem."

"What the Philippines do need, however, is a square deal in the matter of tariff. By annexation we killed Spanish market for the sugar and tobacco of the Philippines and by our tariff we barred these products from the United States. Both industries are today in a state of prostration."
"The policing of the islands is almost entirely in the hands of the natives, and except in Leyte, and Samar where hill tribes make war on the lowlanders all is peace in the Philippines."

By Associated Press.
Cleveland, O., Oct. 30.—The circuit court has handed down a decision which holds that County Treasurer Madigan cannot force his announced intention of collecting a penalty upon all taxes not paid prior to December 20th next. It has been the rule heretofore that an extension of 30 days has been granted from December 20th for taxes to be paid. The new salary law which goes into effect on January 1, takes the place of the fee system and County Treasurer Madigan announced he would enforce the payment of the usual penalty on all taxes not paid by December 20th, notwithstanding the order of the county commissioners, granting an extension of 30 days.

BROWN AND THE TRUSTS.

(Columbus Citizen, Ind.)

That the trusts and corporations
still have a firm grip on the republican organization in Ohio is again
shown by the election of Walter F.
Brown of Toledo as chairman of the state central committee.

In his own town Brown is the attorney for the Toledo brewery trust and personally managed the beer trust's campaign in all his fights under the Jones law, and before that the Brannack law.

During the strenuous fight of the Toledo Railway and Light company in Toledo three years ago for a 25-year franchise, Brown was chief lawyer for the trolley company at the same time he was executive head of the Toledo republican machine; and it was his strenuous fight for a franchise for his corporation employer that made it necessary for the people to march several thousand strong to the council chamber in 1903 and present the for-mons petition in hands that prevented Brown from passing the franchise or disbanding over the veto of Mayor Jones.

He has been the Toledo member of the republican state central committee for a number of years, and is a familiar figure at Columbus when the legislature is in session, appearing here as a corporation lobbyist, espe-

CANDIDATE W. E. TOUVELLE

Has Always Been Ardent in His Support of Mr. Bryan
Is and Always Has Been a Democrat
Tried and True.

"W. E. Touvelle as a citizen, and W. E. Touvelle as a democratic candidate for congress, are entirely different propositions to confront the voters of this county on election day.
Whatever your admiration for him as a citizen may be, as a candidate for congress he is a democrat, representing the principles of his party and if elected will support all party measures that will come before congress."
—Celina Observer.

Our esteemed contemporary is the only simon pure republican organ in Mercer county. It often sees things exactly as they are. It is quite right in observing that all our people, without regard to party, have an admiration for W. E. Touvelle, candidate for congress, as a citizen. His private life is beyond reproach. He is a liberal, public spirited citizen.
He is a kind, affectionate son, husband and father.

He is a democrat, representing the principles of his party. Mr. Touvelle has been active in upholding the principles of democracy. He always has been an ardent supporter of Mr. Bryan. He made many speeches in the campaign of 1896 and 1900,
and was mainly instrumental in Mercer county giving Mr. Bryan a majority of 2787, the banner majority in Ohio that year.

Certainly, he will support democratic measures that will come before the street railways and brewers.

Judging the future by the past, it is fair to assume that his elevation to the position of chairman of the republican state central committee will be a mighty good thing for the seekers
for special privilege and a mighty bar-thing for the republican party and the people of Ohio.

The important position of county
surveyor of Allen county is ably filled by Charles E. Craig, now serving his first term and a candidate for re-election. It is a matter of public record that the affairs of this office are in the very finest condition. He is just the man to keep in that important position.

THE BOSSES ARE DESPERATE.

The bosses see defeat staring them in the face. It will be an accompanied fact next Tuesday. So desperate has the machine become that the mud batteries have already been opened and that other old standby, "The Republican" has been let loose. But it will do no good and voters who believe in clean politics and honestly conducted affairs by honest and capable officials will not be deceived by the desperate methods that are being employed by the republican bosses.

The exposure of this legislative record of rotten dealing, republican candidates for food and dairy commissioner, will cause every honest stranger to hesitate before he casts his vote for a Cox controlled man to occupy this important office.

Mr. Dunlap's record is a matter of public record. Mr. Dunlap's vote passed the resolution exempting a numbered million dollars in bonds held by the trust companies from taxation.
He does not deny it. Had he not done it, the resolution could have been defeated. These facts are the basis of the republican paper's claiming to be unbiased in the interest of the farmer and desiring to be impartial. Has it attempted to defeat the address. He will be true to his convictions and he will be found at his post of duty, contending by voice and vote for measures that will aid

the common people and relieve them
from the wrongs inflicted by avarice and greed under protection of law.

Yes, our republican neighbor states the conditions fairly, although the purpose is to warn republicans not to vote for Mr. Touvelle because he is a democrat, notwithstanding their admiration for him as a citizen. He is a democrat faithful and true, but his republican neighbors know him to be just and fair-minded and they will vote for him. The indications are that Mr. Touvelle will receive one-half of the republican votes in our county. This result is natural since our candidate is a man of high standing at home and our county has had but one representative in congress, Hon. F. C.
LeBlond, forty years ago.

Mr. Touvelle was never a candidate for office. He was appointed postmaster during Cleveland's first administration and served three years when he resigned to enter college. He was very popular as a postmaster. Democrats and republicans alike know him to be worthy and so fully equipped for representation in congress that he will unquestionably receive the largest vote cast
for any candidate in Mercer county
for many years.—Celina Standard.

Dunlap's record by throwing mud at the democratic candidate, Mr. Rodney J. Diegel, who was born and raised on a farm and who is today morally and intellectually the peer of any man who has ever held the office of dairy and food commissioner, and who, in his speech accepting the nomination, said that it elected the farmer's interests
would be his first consideration. Mr.
Diegel recently sent the following letter:

"Editor Ohio Farmer,
Dear Sir:

"In a recent issue of your paper appeared a garbled version of a letter written by me to an old schoolmate.
Briefly, you characterize this letter as "apparent." Your criticism may be just from your standpoint, but it may cause a wrong impression to some of your readers, who take your paper under the supposition that it is independent in politics.

"I was born and raised on a farm and since entering the field of journalism, I have always used my pen and such talent as I may possess to uphold justice and fair dealing among my fellow-citizens. At Columbus while my republican opponent was advocating and voting for a measure to exempt millions in bonds from taxation, thus increasing the burdens of the farmer, as a newspaper man I exposed the scheme and did all that I could to prevent this discrimination in favor of corporate wealth.

"I do not believe a public office is a private one, but it is a sacred trust to be administered under the law for the benefit of the people to whom it belongs, and by whom it was created.
I believe I have intelligence enough to know my duty and courage and honesty enough to discharge it. I am not a politician, don't want to be,
and never can be one, but my record
as a citizen and a citizen has been such as to be a matter of inspection and endorsement by fair consideration and respect among my fellow-citizens, regardless of whether they vote for me or not.

"By publishing this you will do injustice, as I think you are willing to do to the tariff question. Soon after the election Governor Guild wrote a letter to Mr. Roosevelt in which he stated that in his judgment the republican ticket in Massachusetts would have the president to incorporate in his message a suggestion favorable to tariff

Bowling Green, O., Oct. 30.—For many years the territory to the west of the famous Liberty, Henry and Plain townships fields of the old Wood county field has been looked upon as worthless, owing to the big dip in the Bowling Green to the west. Some years ago a couple of wells were drilled to the west in Milton township, near the outlet of Weston, and some oil was found, but in small quantities. What is known as the Haskins-Portage-Munroe sucker-rod belt the sand is found to be 1,200 feet while to the west the formation dips quite rapidly, hence, the past theory that there was no oil to be found. Now the older territory is getting pretty well drilled over and prospectors expect to advance to the west and drill the dip. They expect to get abundance of salt water, but they contend that if they can exhaust water that the oil will come in. That big wells are looked for, to drill and time alone will tell the story, and nothing else. J. P. Ferrin, oil man of Jamestown, N. Y., and formerly a resident of Toledo, Ohio, a representative of H. W. Odell, others is now in the field for the purpose of leasing land in this territory above described. So far he has secured leases on about 7,000 acres in Wood and Henry counties, and expect to start operations before the cold weather sets in.

Wants a Receiver.
D. M. Sterling, administrator of the estate of John L. Courtwright has filed a suit in the Wood county courts against the Ande Oil company and others, in which he asks for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of and sell some oil well appliances in which Courtwright was interested.
Late Ohio Wells.
In Bloom township, Wood county, O. A. Browning & Co. have a salt water pumper in No. 18 Dow Hatfield farm, section 16, and a 10 barrel pumper in No. 25 C. Hamman farm, section 19. Dennis Bros. have a 25 barrel pumper in No. 2 on the S. R. Hiller farm, section 26.
In Liberty township, Wood county, the Ohio Oil company's No. 11 Thos. Carr farm, section 11, pumped 125 barrels. This is a large producer for the old territory that has been drawn upon for the past 18 years.
In Portage township, Wood county, Chas. Brown's No. 1 on the M. A. Simon farm, in the southeast quarter of section 15, pumped less than half a barrel of crude the first 24 hours. The Hubble Oil company's No. 2 E. Stock land, section 15, pumped 2 barrels, and Bateson & Desler's No. 2 Krabill farm, section 24, pumped 10 barrels.
Frank J. Cheney has sold his oil holdings in the Haskins field, consisting of leases on several hundred acres and close to 25 wells to Shuler and others of Bowling Green for a consideration of $14,000.
In Allen township, Hancock county, J. E. Heistand & Co.'s test on the Wm. Dove farm, in the southeast quarter of section 13, is a duster.
In Cass township, the Stacey Oil company has a well on the Reynolds farm, that looks good for 50 barrels at the start off.
In Union township, Hancock county, the Beatty-Nickle Oil company's No. 10 C. W. Solt farm, section 24, pumped better than 50 barrels, and another on the Philip Schwin farm, pumped 20 barrels.

HIS SOFT SOAP DEFIED BY BARS.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 30.—Coating his naked body with soft soap in order to force his way through the bars of his cell, several of which had been secretly filed away, Harry Wise, a complacent long term prisoner, made a desperate and sensational effort to escape from the Berks county jail, and the facts were officially concealed. The attempt failed only because Wise had miscalculated the space required, and his body was wedged between the steel bars.

Black and blue and exhausted from his exertions in the unique predicament, Wise was discovered by a night watchman. With difficulty he was released from his self-made trap and placed under close watch in another cell.

It was quite evident that Wise's attempted escape was aided by persons outside of the prison. He was serving a year's term for larceny. According to his confession he had planned his escape from the first day of his imprisonment. He had secreted minute saws of the finest steel in the soles of his shoes, which he later kept concealed in his cell. Daily and nightly, in momentary absences of keepers and watchmen, he filed away the bars of a skylight in the upper section of his cell. He concealed the steel dust soaped the several bars so that there was no evidence of their having been interfered with. To avoid suspicion he conducted himself meanwhile as a model prisoner.

The skylight would admit Wise to the roof of the jail. The jail yard was forty feet below, and he had prepared for the descent by tearing bed clothing into strips and knotting them into a rope.

These final preparations were completed. That he had friends awaiting him outside was evident from the fact that his escape necessitated the removal of almost all his clothing. He reached the skylight by standing on his cot and succeeded in forcing his head and shoulders through, but was unable to force the rest of his body, and could move neither forward nor backward. It was necessary to file away additional bars before he could be released.

In the later years of her life only very intimate friends knew that Lady Curzon possessed a remarkably fine singing voice or that she had been a pupil of Mme. Marchesi. People hardly gave her credit for having self-education or for being shy, and yet she did one and was the other. Till the end she and her husband kept up the habit of their courtship days when apart and telegraphed or cabled to each other daily. In view of Lady Curzon's untimely death, superstitious folk are pointing to the fact that at the Delhi Durbar she wore a dress

THE INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGE.

Having written some days ago a brief article on Esperanto, the international language, for the Times-Democrat of this city, and realizing the importance of the subject it appears that a further consideration is demanded, and hence, by the courtesy of the editor, the writer takes pleasure in submitting the following:

To say that Esperanto in a few years will have become a common medium of communication for the many nations of the world might be regarded by some as too radical a statement. A few facts concerning the wonders of the new language and a few notes pertinent to its present adoption will, however, modify any such views as to the extravagance of the prediction.

Esperanto is a language rich in words simple and scientific, euphonious and quite adaptable. Esperanto has had thus for an existence of six years only. Today there are forty periodicals published in Europe and in the important cities mercantile concerns are utilizing Esperanto in their advertisements.

Last year six hundred Japanese students took up its study. Our own country is beginning to see the possibilities of the new tongue. Oklahoma City may well boast of having been the first in the newspaper field as there is published there a "L'America Esperantista." Already there are a great number of Esperantist societies in the states, viz: Boston, New York, Chicago, Seattle, etc. Esperanto has been introduced in the following colleges: University of Pennsylvania, Harvard, Cornell, Leland Stanford, Jr., Dartmouth, University of Missouri, Wellesley, John Hopkins, Ohio State University at Columbus, Ohio, and many others. Our Navad Academy is discussing the advisability of introducing it and clubs and societies which come in contact with other countries are adopting it officially. The London chamber of commerce is said to be using it, and France, Germany and Sweden are teaching Esperanto in their commercial schools. It has lately been reported from trustworthy source that even Bulgaria and the South American countries are taking hold of it.

Although Esperanto has received the attention of the thinkers of the world, scientists, public men, and has baffled adverse criticism of noted linguists, it is easily acquired by anybody. It has an alphabet of twenty-eight letters of Roman type each letter having always one sound. There are no silent letters. Words are written as pronounced and pronounced as written. All words in Esperanto are accented on the next to the last syllable. The singular singularly ends in O. The adjective singular always, in A. adverbs without exception in E. The plural is formed by the addition of J. Like in Latin there is no indefinite article. The definite article is always LA, singular and plural. The personal pronouns are: Mi, I; Tu, thou; Li, he; Si, she; Ni, we; Ili, they. These form the objective case as do nouns by the suffixing of n; for example: min, me; lin, him; etc. The possessive pronouns, which may be taken as adjectives, are found in just the same manner as adjectives by the addition of a: Mia, mine; lia, his; etc. The verb which is the "stick" in other languages is a mere nil in Esperanto. There are no irregular verbs. When the student has learned the simple and easy conjugation of one verb he has learned the conjugation of all verbs. The prefix mal is used to denote the opposite of an idea. Varma means warm; malvarma, cold; sana, healthy; malsana, unhealthy. The suffix in, denotes feminine gender; knabo, boy; knabino, girl; bovo, bull; bovino, cow. Eg is used to convey the idea of enlargement, varma, warm; varmego, hot; domo, house; domego, mansion. Il forms the word for the instrument by which something is done; glad, to iron; gladiilo, flat-iron; bori, to bore; borilo, auger. Ar expresses collectively as vagono, car; vagonaro, train. Ei signifies the place where action usually occurs, for instance lerni is to learn, and lernejo is the word for school. There are thirty-one of these suffixes and prefixes in use, and by use of such simple changes every shade of thought may be expressed in Esperanto. In short it may be stated that the grammar presents no difficulties to the average mind. An Esperanto enthusiast may be quoted as saying "In this new linguistic house everything is spick-and-span from cellar to attic, with no dusty cobweb exceptions—Esperanto is language in capsule form, to be swallowed and digested while you wait."

There should be no reason why a club could not be formed in Lima for the purpose of studying and practicing the new language which is evidently destined to become very popular here as it is now in France and other countries. Any such movement would receive the writers hearty cooperation.

Treating Wrong Disease.

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, because of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse, by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and substituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve-line "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous headache, nervous indigestion, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon organic disease of the nervous system. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

LOST MINE FOUND BY MICHIGAN MAN.

Fort Francis, Ont., Oct. 30.—E. F. Beattie of Bay City, Mich., is now the owner of one of the richest mines in the Rainy river district. Mr. Beattie claims that one of the veins in the mine is 100 feet wide and shows for 110 feet along the surface, carrying high values in gold, silver and copper. Samples were sent to Assayer James Ogden, Denver, Colo., who assayed them at $325 and $376 in gold to the ton, which shows the great value of the mine considering the samples were not picked, but were fair specimens from the vein. The iron in the veins assay $7.50 to the ton and the silver also runs high. Mr. Beattie is now securing the necessary capital to properly develop the vein and expects to be fabulously rich before the end of the coming year. The secret of this mine was kept for over twenty years by Ben Almos, an old half-breed trapper, who heard of it from his Indian relatives. For years he has sought a man whom he considered sufficiently honest to share his secret. One day he went to Mr. Beattie, who was working the Argentine mine, and said: "You honest man. You pay your men every week. I show you something, but you give me half what you make."

Almos then led the way down the Steele river, and showed the vein which no one had ever discovered in all the years that prospectors have roamed the country. Mr. Beattie at once saw the vein was an exceptionally rich one and at once took the necessary steps to secure the property, and in a few days the find will be opened up and developed. For years past gold has been found in this district and many American investors now have money tied up in mining properties here, but in the majority of cases the money paid out has never been returned by the mine, although there are a few claims which have paid big money. This year especially a large number of Americans have invested in New Ontario Gold properties and hardly a week passes without some party arriving to inspect some new purchase. Other have sent out prospectors to seek diamonds in this district and a few have been found during the last few years, adding more enthusiasm to the work of the diamond hunters.

Manzan relieves instantly the pain caused by those blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. It is put up in collapsible tubes in such a way that it can be applied where the trouble originates, thus stopping the pain immediately. Try one bottle and if you are not relieved, your money will be refunded. Try our free offer. Sold at H. F. Vorkamp's drug store.

CHAMOIS VESTS

To protect one from sudden changes in the weather, from extreme cold; to protect the chest when suffering from lung trouble, nothing quite so effective as a good chamois vest. We have them either plain or lined. Either the plain or lined can be laundered the same as a piece of woolen cloth. They will last several seasons, and certainly they are most effective in protecting the body and in preventing sudden colds, especially in long cold drives. Worn by many people.

PASSENGER TRAIN HIT RUNAWAY FREIGHT CAR.

Erle Train No. 14 in a Serious "Pickle."

Crashed Into Car Load of Heinz's 57 Varieties
West of Town.

FIREMAN IS INJURED.

Was Taken to His Home in Huntington on Train
Number Seven.

Engine and One Car Wrecked—Passengers Given Shaking Up.

At 9:33 o'clock last night, east bound passenger and express train No. 14 of the Chicago & Erie road, crashed into a loaded freight car on the main track of that road at a point near the Shawnee road crossing about one mile west of the passenger depot and near the Hog Creek bridge. The fact that no lives were lost as a result of the collision is miraculous and the fact that the obstruction was only one car and that no brakes were set on that one is regarded by the trainmen and officials as an exceedingly fortunate circumstance.

The freight car was loaded with casks of pickles and the manner in which it came to be standing on the main track on the passenger train's time is accounted for in but one way. It had broken away from a cut of cars which the night switching crew had been switching out in the west end yards and ran to a point near the road crossing, where the grade begins to slope upward to the west, and there came to a stop. The loss of the car from the "string" was unannounced by the switchmen and after they had finished switching the remainder of the cut they went into the "clear" in another part of the yards to await the passing of No. 14.

Train 14 was in charge of Conductor C. J. Furman, engineer "Rob" Shaw and fireman A. M. Lowman, all of Huntington. The train had just descended the hill west of town, was running at a rate of fifty miles an hour and was within a few car lengths of the pickle car before the crash was seen by Engineer Shaw. At the moment of impact a great number of people began to look back a moment after the crash and the end of that big freight car B & O box car he saw a bunch of pickles. The instant he saw the danger he threw his air brakes lever into the emergency notch and opened the sand valves. It was too late to stop, however, and in a matter of minutes the crash came.

Fireman Lowman injured. Fireman Lowman heard Engineer Shaw's cry of warning and had time to make a flying leap from the deck of the engine an instant before the crash occurred. He landed violently on the ground and scooped up dirt and cinders for some distance with his arms and face. He was badly cut and bruised and was taken to Huntington early this morning on train No. 7, but, unless he sustained internal injuries, his condition is not serious.

Engineer Shaw remained at his post and did all he could to bring the train to a stop, an effort in which he succeeded after the train had gone a distance of about thirty-five car lengths beyond the point where the first crash occurred.

At the first impact, the locomotive telescoped the box car, the roof of the car scooping the stack and cab over the engine and forming a roof over the entire boiler and tank. For a short distance both pairs of trucks under the box car remained on the rails in front of the engine. Then the first pair of trucks turned sideways and were hurled from the track and against a car on a passing track, derailing the other car. The further pair of trucks remaining on the rails until the train finally stopped.

Passengers Were Shaken Up. When Engineer Shaw threw his air lever into the emergency notch the passengers were, many of them, thrown out of their seats and when the locomotive hit the heavily loaded car the pile-up in the forward coaches was made complete. Many of the seats were turned over in the smother and the passengers were given a severe tossing and shaking but no one was seriously hurt.

The box car was literally demolished and pickles were strewn along the tracks for a distance of about thirty-five car lengths. The scene was visited by many people last night and this morning, and one man drove to the Shawnee road crossing with a wagon and started to load on a few barrels of pickles but was stopped in the work by the railroad detectives who went to the scene as soon as they were notified of the wreck.

Train 14 was delayed only about two hours as a result of the accident. A freight engine from Spencerville being called into service to take the train on to Marion. The regular engine of the passenger run was, however, badly disabled one steam chest and one cylinder, the pilot smoke stack and other parts of the engine being torn off.

Engineer Shaw is to be commended for the splendid presence of mind and bravery he displayed and is to be congratulated upon having escaped from the wreck without injury.

Master Mechanic Young Enjoyed His Elevated Position.

DEATH OF LAST NIGHT

At Springfield Saddens Employees of the D.
T. & I. Road.

L. L. Young, master mechanic of the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton system, and well known in this city, where he spent much of his early railway career on that road, died at Springfield last night, where he has been a sufferer for the past two weeks.

Mr. Young enjoyed his promotion to the highest position of the shop system, just 29 days, having been named effective October 1st. He began railroad work as a fireman in 1895, was promoted to an engineer in 1898, served as a freight engineer until his promotion to a passenger run in 1901, and from this was promoted to traveling engineer of the system on July 1st of this year, which position he later resigned and took his old place at the throttle as a passenger engineer, serving until October 1st, when he received the appointment as master mechanic.

But a few days later while in Jackson, he was stricken with paralysis, and was later removed to the hospital in Springfield where his death occurred. He was a man only in middle life with wife and estimable family, residing in Springfield and his death comes as a shock to all the employees of the D. T. & I. system. He was one of the most popular officials in the service of that road, and the boys of the line were particularly pleased at the rapid rise which he had made in the course of but eleven years.

One of the splendid results of physical beautifying is its tendency to create an ambition to be beautiful in every way. When a woman gets a good start by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea she is all right. Tea or tablets, 35 cents H. F. Vorkamp.

BIG JAIL DELIVERY

At Wapakoneta Was Foiled
by Accidental Discovery in Time.

KEY MADE FROM COMB

By Talented Prisoner Who Had Planned the Daring Get Away.

Regarding an attempted jail delivery at Wapakoneta the News of that city says:

What would have been one of the largest jail deliveries in the history of northwestern Ohio would have been accomplished Saturday night had it not been for a timely discovery made by Sheriff August Smith. As was related in this paper Saturday two keys and six steel saws were found secreted by the prisoners. For several weeks past the authorities knew that something was in the air, but previous to last week nothing definite could be gathered.

Tuesday of last week a search was made in the jail with the result that the two keys and one steel saw were found. The saw was found tied to a small water pipe, and it was by accident that it was discovered. The prisoners are given bread to mend their clothes but one used what was given him to tie the saw to the water pipe. The keys, however, have a very interesting history. They were, according to an investigation conducted by Sheriff Smith, made by J. E. Moore who is now awaiting trial on two indictments of robbery. The keys were made from a large aluminum comb and were cut out with a small pocket knife.

During spare moments and while other prisoners were not watching Moore accomplished his work and made two keys that were the work of an artist. They worked to perfection on the lock of the inner door of the jail. From certain actions of the prisoners around the jail it was suspected that keys were being made, as the large comb was missing. Moore was accused of appropriating the comb for such a purpose but of course denied any knowledge about the matter. It was while the sheriff was accusing the man that the keys were found concealed in a book that Moore had been pretending to read. They were neatly pasted to a leaf with molasses, and it was only accidental that they were found.

LOSING VENTURE
Was the Contract to Furnish Eisteddfod Chairs.

Mr. G. Serrels, of Delphos who furnished eighteen hundred chairs for the seating of the Mammoth at the Delphos Eisteddfod, was in Lima yesterday, returning several hundred chairs which he had rented in to suit. As the result of a team of horses running away with one of the wagons which was loaded with chairs from the McCullough lake pavilion quite a large number of three section chairs were wrecked and Mr. Serrels will be required to replace them in a short time with new material. The undertaking to seat the park with 1500 chairs was a losing venture for him.
